Mr. Raymond Pardon
Office of Soviet Affairs
U.S. Department of State
Room 4229 21st & C Streets, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Mr. Pardon:

This is to inform you that USSR research fellow, Dr. Vladislav Seleznev will travel by air from Worcester, Mass. to Chicago, Ill. on May 9. Until May 11, he will sightsee in Chicago. On May 12, he will attend the Chicago Catalysis Club's Symposium at the Illinois Institute of Technology. While in Chicago, he will stay at the Play Boy Hotel, 163 E. Walton Place.

The USSR research fellow, Dr. Andrey Skliarov will travel by car to Chicago with his research supervisor, Prof. George Keulks of the University of Wisconsin on May 12. On that date, Dr. Skliarov will present a paper at the same Symposium at the Illinois Institute of Technology. In the evening of May 12, both Skliarov and Seleznev will be taken to the Hotel Orrington, 1710 Orrington Avenue, Evanston, Illinois. On May 13, they will visit with Profs. H. Pines and R. L. Burwell at the Northwestern University in Evanston. On the morning of May 14, they will travel by plane to Los Angeles, and on either May 18 or 19, to San Francisco, Calif.

Sometime during the week of April 14, I hope to be able to complete their travel arrangements and send you an updated itinerary.

Sincerely yours,

Maria
